

Janet Jackson and Justin Timberlake should be arrested for indicent exposure and exposing themselves to minors. No one waited to arrest or excepted apologies from the streaker. NO APOLOGIES! They knew what they did, who their audience was and it was obviously planned. The Viacom corp. should be held accountable. I try to not expose my children to such filth; we can not even watch network television anymore. The rest of the half-time show was too sexual. Leave that rubbing and stripping on adult programs. Maybe you should reconsider live television.
